MUNICIPALITY OF NORTH MIDDLESEX
ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT OF CAO CAROLYN TRIPP
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – APRIL 24, 2026

NORTH MIDDLESEX, ONTARIO – The Municipality of North Middlesex announces the retirement of Carolyn Tripp from her role as Chief Administrative Officer (CAO), marking the conclusion of a distinguished and impactful career in municipal leadership.

Carolyn has served the Municipality with exceptional dedication, professionalism, and integrity. Throughout her tenure, she has played a vital role in guiding North Middlesex through key initiatives, strengthening municipal operations, and fostering a collaborative and forward-thinking organizational culture. Her leadership has contributed significantly to the growth and continued success of the community.

“On behalf of Council and the Municipality of North Middlesex, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Carolyn Tripp for her exceptional leadership and expertise throughout her time as Chief Administrative Officer. Carolyn’s dedication and steady guidance have played a significant role in the growth and success of our community. We are truly grateful for her many contributions and wish her all the very best in her retirement and future plans,” states Brian Ropp, Mayor of North Middlesex.

As CAO, Carolyn provided strategic direction to Council and staff, ensuring the effective delivery of municipal services while maintaining a strong focus on transparency, accountability, and community engagement. Her commitment to excellence and her ability to lead with both vision and compassion have left a lasting impression across the organization and the broader community.

“It has been a privilege to serve as CAO of North Middlesex. I am proud of our accomplishments and grateful to Council, staff, and the community for their support. I leave with confidence in the municipality’s bright future,” says Carolyn Tripp.

Carolyn’s legacy is one of strong leadership, meaningful progress, and a deep commitment to public service. The Municipality thanks her for her invaluable contributions and wishes her continued success and fulfillment in this next chapter.
